WHO WE ARE

Christian Teenagers Foundation (CTF) is a structured youth development organization committed to raising disciplined, purpose-driven, and spiritually grounded teenagers. Through mentorship systems, academic initiatives, leadership frameworks, and coordinated outreach programs, CTF equips young people to navigate academic, social, and spiritual challenges while preparing for long-term societal impact.

MISSION, VISION & MANDATE

Our Vision

Raising a generation of Spirit-Filled teenagers to change the world.

Our Mission

To equip this generation of teenagers with the skillset and resources to attain the highest level of excellence in their academics, finance, social lives, leadership, and spirituality.

Our Mandate

Oluwatosin, Raise me a people Without Blemish. - 1 Timothy 4:12

◆ OUR CORE INITIATIVES

CTF operates through defined programs designed to support teenage development across academic, leadership, and spiritual dimensions.

◆ OUR CORE INITIATIVES

Our Core Initiatives

CTF operates through defined programs designed to support teenage development across academic, leadership, and spiritual dimensions.

Life on Campus (LOC)

Life on Campus (LOC) is CTF's structured university transition system designed to prepare SS3 students for academic, social, and spiritual realities of university life.

The program combines a growing video library featuring 300–400 level university students sharing real experiences across private, public, and international institutions, alongside a companion LOC book with integrated digital features, including QR-coded video access, guided reflections, and quizzes for practical learning.

LOC equips students with clarity, awareness, and decision-making frameworks before entering higher institutions.

Course of Study Finder (COS)

The Course of Study Finder (COS) is a structured academic decision-making tool designed to help students identify suitable university courses based on their academic strengths, personal values, and interests.

The system includes:

- A Senior Secondary (SS3) pathway for selecting university courses
- A Junior Secondary (JS3) pathway for choosing academic direction (Science, Arts, Commercial, or Technical)

COS reduces confusion and misalignment by guiding students toward purpose-aligned academic paths.

Digital Detergent

Digital Detergent is a 30-day structured personal development and accountability program designed to help teenagers reset their habits, thoughts, and digital consumption patterns.

The program focuses on supporting young people dealing with challenges such as pornography, masturbation, and other unhealthy behavioral cycles, guiding them toward discipline, purity, and renewed mental clarity through daily structured engagement.

Digital Detergent combines practical accountability systems with spiritual and behavioral discipline frameworks.

CTF Scholarship Program

The CTF Scholarship Program is a structured academic support initiative launched in 2025 to provide tuition assistance and mentorship support to outstanding secondary school students.

Applications open annually in January and are open to SS2 and SS3 students who demonstrate academic potential, strong character, and alignment with CTF's values.

Beyond financial support, the program integrates mentorship, guidance, and personal development to ensure beneficiaries are equipped for sustained academic and life success.

As of today, the program has awarded 41 tuition scholarships, with ongoing expansion to support more students across partner schools and communities.

Teacher of the Year (TOY) Awards

A recognition platform honoring outstanding educators within CTF partner schools, promoting excellence in teaching and mentorship.

Rebuilders Academy

A focused training platform addressing discipline, personal responsibility, and character formation for teenagers navigating modern social pressures.

Monthly Conferences & Daily Prayer Chain

Coordinated gatherings designed to strengthen spiritual growth, accountability, and leadership development across CTF's student network.

◆ About Christian Teenagers Foundation (CTF)

WHO WE ARE

Christian Teenagers Foundation (CTF) is a legally registered Nigerian youth development organisation focused on mentoring, leadership formation, academic excellence, and faith-based character development for teenagers aged 15–19.

Founded on February 19, 2018, in Egbeda, Lagos State, Nigeria, CTF operates through structured systems designed to equip young people with the discipline, clarity, and capacity required to excel academically, lead responsibly, and live purpose-driven lives.

Through coordinated programs, mentorship systems, and development frameworks, CTF engages students across secondary schools and universities, building a generation positioned for long-term societal and global impact.

VISION, MISSION & MANDATE

Our Vision

Raising a generation of Spirit-Filled teenagers to change the world.

Our Mission

To equip this generation of teenagers with the skillset and resources to attain the highest level of excellence in their academics, finance, social lives, leadership, and spirituality.

Our Mandate

“Oluwatosin, raise me a people without blemish.” — 1 Timothy 4:12

This mandate reflects CTF's commitment to raising teenagers of character, discipline, and spiritual depth—young people who live above compromise and demonstrate excellence in every area of life.

OUR STORY

The Christian Teenagers Foundation (CTF) was founded on February 19, 2018, in Egbeda, Lagos State, Nigeria, with just seven people present at its inauguration. From the outset, CTF was built on a bold vision—to raise spirit-filled teenagers equipped to excel and influence their world through five core pillars: Academic Excellence, Financial Intelligence, Social Adeptness, Leadership Excellence, and Christ-like Spirituality.

In its early phase, CTF implemented intensive two-week teen camps designed to groom participants holistically across these pillars. This foundation quickly expanded into school outreaches, standalone teen conferences, choir concerts, Easter Broadway productions, summer outreaches, and Christmas conferences held across Lagos Mainland and Abuja.

A major milestone came in 2018 with the launch of the Life on Campus (LOC) initiative, beginning with Faith Academy, Canaanland, Ota, where over 200 students attended a transformative week-long program. Its impact led to invitations from Covenant University Secondary School and Faith Academy, Gowon Estate. Through consistent outreach and strong follow-up systems, CTF expanded into Ogun State, mentoring SS3 students as they transitioned into university life.

The COVID-19 pandemic marked a pivotal shift, as CTF rapidly transitioned online, hosting monthly e-conferences and digital programs focused on academics, leadership, and spiritual growth—significantly increasing its reach.

Post-lockdown, in 2021, CTF established its first library in Egbeda, Lagos, partnering with schools such as GWAT Private School and Jofem Secondary School. In 2022, the foundation extended its outreach to Ibadan through a teen retreat hosted by Living Faith Church.

In 2024, CTF expanded its impact into public schools across Lagos Island and Mainland, reaching students at Badore Community College, Olomu Community High School, and Millennium College, Egbeda.

By 2025, CTF entered a new phase of structured impact—launching its Scholarship Program, supporting students through tuition assistance, publishing the Life on Campus (LOC) book, and introducing the Course of Study Finder (COS), a system guiding students in choosing purpose-aligned university courses.

Notably, CTF's influence has extended globally, with alumni currently studying in countries including the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Ukraine, and Germany.

Today, CTF stands as a growing youth development organization shaping the future of teenagers across Nigeria and beyond.

OUR DEVELOPMENT FRAMEWORK

CTF's programs and systems are built around five core pillars that guide the holistic development of every member. Each pillar is supported by a structured framework that translates values into practical, teachable outcomes.

Academic Excellence (PRIZE Framework)

Developing productivity, responsibility, integrity, critical thinking, and a commitment to excellence in academic pursuits.

◆ SECTION 6: LEADERSHIP

Founder & Leadership

FOUNDER

Mr. Tee — Founder, Christian Teenagers Foundation

Pst. Oluwatosin Noiki (fondly called Mr. Tee) is the visionary founder of the Christian Teenagers Foundation (CTF), a movement committed to raising spirit-filled teenagers who are equipped to influence their world with purpose, excellence, and integrity.

Since founding CTF on February 19, 2018, he has led the organization with a clear and compelling mandate—to reach and transform teenagers at one of the most critical stages of their lives. His leadership is driven by a deep understanding that the teenage years are not just transitional, but foundational for destiny.

With a strong passion for youth development, Mr. Tee has pioneered initiatives that blend spiritual growth, academic excellence, leadership development, and real-world relevance. Under his leadership, CTF has grown into a multi-campus and multi-platform movement, impacting thousands of students across Nigeria and beyond—including a growing international community.

He is known for his ability to think beyond traditional ministry models, building systems and platforms that position teenagers for long-term impact. His vision continues to drive CTF toward national reach, with a bold goal of influencing every senior secondary school student across Nigeria.

At the core of his leadership is a commitment to raising a generation that is not only spiritually alive, but intellectually equipped, socially responsible, and globally relevant.

LEADERSHIP TEAM

Amarachi Aririsichukwu — General Secretary

Amarachi serves as the administrative backbone of CTF, ensuring that the organization operates with structure, clarity, and efficiency. As General Secretary, she oversees coordination across departments, documentation, and internal communication.

Her attention to detail and commitment to excellence help translate vision into organized execution, making her a vital part of CTF's growing structure.

Greatpeace Edionwele — Prayer Director

Greatpeace leads the spiritual engine of CTF, overseeing prayer initiatives and intercessory structures that sustain the organization's mission.

With a deep passion for spiritual growth and revival among teenagers, she ensures that CTF remains grounded in its core identity as a Spirit-led movement. Her leadership strengthens the spiritual atmosphere across all programs and platforms.

Tuwase David — Outreach Director

Tuwase heads CTF's outreach efforts, driving the expansion of the movement into schools and communities. He coordinates evangelism strategies, school engagements, and field operations.

His work is central to CTF's mission of reaching teenagers directly, especially through public school outreaches and grassroots engagement initiatives.

Ore Martins — Digital & Creative Director

Ore leads CTF's digital presence and creative direction, shaping how the organization communicates and engages across platforms.

From content strategy to visual storytelling, he ensures that CTF's message is not only heard but felt—especially by a generation that lives online. His role is key in expanding CTF's digital reach and influence.

Ifeanyi Emmanuel — Finance Director

Ifeanyi oversees the financial systems of CTF, ensuring accountability, transparency, and sustainability in all operations.

He manages budgeting, financial planning, and resource allocation, helping position CTF for long-term growth and responsible stewardship.

Abore Simisola — Welfare & Birthday Director

Simisola leads member care and welfare within CTF, ensuring that every member feels seen, valued, and supported.

From welfare initiatives to birthday celebrations and community-building efforts, her role strengthens the relational fabric of CTF—making it not just an organization, but a family.

Together, this leadership team drives the vision of CTF—building systems, nurturing people, and expanding impact—toward raising a generation of teenagers who will shape the future.
